2 25.11.2008 The application on behalf of petitioners no.1, 2, 3 and 5 is rejected, since they have been arrested.

The application of the petitioner no.4, Jagdish Sahni, is allowed in as much as the written report suggests that he was part of an assembly who were agitating against the Administration. The reasons for the agitation appears to be death of two innocent persons. The deceased were the son and nephew of the petitioner no.4. Death of both the persons was caused by road accident. In course of agitation it is alleged that Assistant Sub-Inspector of Police, Gayanand Singh Rauthour received injuries. The information reveals that the Police resorted to fire in the air. Considering these factors, the application of petitioner no.4 is allowed.

Let the petitioner no.4, Jagdish Sahni, in the event of his arrest or surrender within six weeks from today,
